Assistance to Japanese Gendarmerie re the Union Publishers & Printers Fed. Inc. 469 Macao Road.

At 10.15 a.m. December 22, 1941, Sub-Lieutenant Eki and other members of Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarter attended C.B.H.Q. (C.I.) and requested assistance to visit a printing establishment on Macao Road and make a search re anti-Japanese literature etc.

Assistance was rendered by D. S. Samochima and the undersigned when the Union publishers & Printers Fed. Inc. U.S.A. 469 Macao Road was visited and Mr. L.H. Wong, sub-manager, residing Lane 375/2 Myburgh Road, interviewed.

It was learned from the Gendarmerie that the Union Publishers & Printers was, until 1938, the Chung Hwa Book Co. Ltd when they sold the business to the present owners. Mr. Wong confirmed this stating the Chung Hwa Book Co. Ltd still rent godowns and office space in the building.

At the request of the Gendarmerie Mr. Wong showed combined parties over the premises. The Gendarmerie sealed the godown space rented by the Chung Hwa Book Co. Ltd but did not interfere with the functioning of the Union Publishers & Printers.

Mr. Wong was requested to furnish particulars re Bank notes printed for the Chungking Government. This was proved to have been done on two occasions only for the Central Bank of China, namely :

Sept. 1939	----	1 cent	$500,000 (face value)
Sept. 1939	----	5 cent	$500,000 (face value)
Nov. 1939	----	1 cent	$1,000,000 (face value)
Nov. 1939	----	5 cent	$5,000,000 (face value)

Contracts confirming these were produced. Copies of them are being made for the Gendarmerie.

All plates, other than what is termed the "Mother plate", have been destroyed as is customary.

The Gendarmerie also expressed their wish to interview Mr. A. F. Ollerdeason, president and general manager of the Union Publishers & Printers at some future time. This, it is understood, will be arranged, by Mr. Wong. Footoo Road Station informed of the visit.

Assistance to Japanese Gendarmerie

At 3.30 p.m. 27-12-41, Sergeant Fujita of the Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters, accompanied by complainant Woo Ching (吳傳), a manager of the Chung Foo Silk Factory, House 13, Lane 1004, Vande Road, came to Crime Branch Headquarters and requested assistance to visit the Kwan San Yuan Restaurant, Wanking Road, for purpose of effecting the arrest of five or six male orientals who had falsely represented themselves to be members of the Japanese Gendarmerie and were attempting to extort the sum of £50,000.00 from Mr. Woo Ching.

Sergeant Fujita gave additional information to the effect that these men might be armed as on the 24th December 1941 when keeping a rendezvous with the complainant one of them had produced a pistol, at the same time explaining that he was a member of the Japanese Gendarmerie.

Complainant Mr. Woo Ching when questioned stated that on the morning of 24th December 1941, he had received a telephone message from some unknown person asking him to call at room 224 Great Eastern Hotel in re his factory having previously been registered with the American authorities, as the Japanese Gendarmerie were now enquiring into such cases.

At 2.30 p.m. 24-12-41 Mr. [redacted] called at the room in question and there met a male Chinese who gave him some tea then and explained that he was working for one named Kuo Fei (郭非), a member of the Japanese Gendarmerie who had been detailed to investigate the original ownership of the Chung Sheng Mill property, as it had been reported that same had previously been registered under the American authorities.

Shortly after this conversation five other male orientals entered the room, some in foreign dress, and one of them was introduced to him as Kuo Fei. This man immediately took a pistol from his pocket and placed same on the table after which it is alleged he informed the complainant that for 20% of the capital of his company he could settle the matter. As this amounted to approximately 350,000.00 complainant asked for time to consider the matter and in the meantime made contact with the Gendarmerie Headquarters through a friend, resulting in him fixing a rendezvous this afternoon (27-12-41) at the Kwan San Yuan Restaurant, Manking Road.

My name is Sung Tsung Fong, age 37, native of Chinkiang, M/Hardware broker, residing at House No.45 Fong Yue Li, Rue Chapais, French Concession.

At about 6 p.m. 6-1-42 I left my home and proceeded to 49 Kwangse Road for the purpose of locating one named Doo Ah Tai alias Fong Sung Sz, friend of my wife, who according to my wife, could do something on the application of any kind of permits, issued by the Japanese Authorities, as she had several friends working in the Japanese Gendarmerie. The reason why I went to visit Doo Ah Tai being that my friend Tang Yosh Ding had several-ten bags of sugar which he intended to transport to Nansiang for sale. As my friend had no permit for the movement of sugar to Nansiang, he came to me and asked me to help him.

On my arrival at 45 Kwangse Road I was arrested by the police officers and brought to Crime Branch Headquarters for enquiries.

The four men charged with Armed Robbery have been remanded until 31-1-42 for judgement.

Regarding the remaining 2 arrested persons Colonel Hayashi has been consulted with reference to the suggestions that these persons be deported from Shanghai and states that he has no means of putting this suggestion into operation at the present time.

As the Gendarmerie have no further interest in these men and as there is no evidence of their having committed any crime within the jurisdiction of the S.M.P. it is suggested that they be released forthwith.

All thirteen arrested persons have been questioned at length with the result that four of them admit being concerned in two armed robberies; one committed in the International Settlement and one in the French Concession.

The particulars of the persons concerned and the robbery committed in the Settlement are as follows:-

Persons concerned :-

1st accused - Zee Chao Foo
3rd " - Loh Kau Tsang
9th " - Lee Ching Keng
12th " - Chen Yu Teih

Particulars of robbery

Armed robbery at a Chinese food shop at 457 Henan Road. On 3-1-42 at 9 p.m. when cash and silver dollars to the total value of $5,500.00 were stolen. Subject of Central F.I.R. 42/42.

On the morning of 9-1-42 these four accused led detectives to the scene of the crime and all four accused were identified by various witnesses.

A total of eight persons took part in this robbery, four of whom have not been arrested and their present whereabouts are unknown. Three pistols were used which were supplied by one named Hong Kuan g Yueng, not arrested. The four accused have made statements admitting

On the afternoon of 12-1-41 an identification parade was held at Louza Station at which witnesses in all robberies which took place during the past two months attended. The 3rd accused Loh Koh Tsang and 9th accused Lee Ching Kong were identified by witnesses as having taken part in a robbery which occurred at 388 Rue du Marche on 4-1-42 when $1,500 in cash was stolen. The 1st accused Zee Chao Yoo and the 12th accused Chen Yee Taih also admit having taken part in this robbery. The Chinese detective of the French Police who attended this identification parade was informed accordingly.

No evidence has been obtained that the remaining seven male and two female arrested persons have been concerned in any crime. However, they were all either directly or indirectly previously connected with the 13th Division of the Peace and Reconstruction Army which has now been removed from the Shanghai Area and as these persons have no means of livelihood in Shanghai they must be considered as potential armed robbers.

My name is Zee Chao Foo alias Gee Chao Foo, 27 years of age, native of Wusih, and residing in a Lodging House.

When I was young boy, I studied in a private school in the city of Wusih, and at the age of 22 years I was an apprentice in the Dah Kong Drapery Shop, located in the same city.

At the age of 24 years (i.e. in the year 1939) I came to Shanghai from my native place, and through the introduction of one Gee Zau Liang, a friend of mine, I joined the Peace & Reconstruction Corps and was employed as a secretary under one Vai Keng Zai, who was the Sergeant-Major of the 3rd Regiment of the 12th Route Army. Up to September 1941 the aforementioned army was disbanded, therefore I returned to the place of my nativity, where I then became unemployed.

On the 27-12-41 I came to Shanghai again and lived in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Weikwe, French Concession. After living in this Lodging House for a period of two days, I met one Kong Ziang Young (not arrested), an acquaintance of mine, who previously worked in the same Army with me.

On 30-12-41 when Kong Ziang Young and myself were rambling about the street, we met one named Yeh Woo Zaung, who formerly opened a tea-shop in Footung. Owing to the bankruptcy of his tea-shop, he came to Shanghai and lived in Room 7B of the Three Friends' Lodging House, located on Rue Falikao, French Concession. The latter then accompanied both Kong Yuen Yung and myself in his room, in which three other persons (name unknown) were found to be present.

At that time Yeh Woo Chung spoke to us that as we were lack of money, we ought to commit a robbery in seizing a me. He told us that every thing was ready for carrying on the attempted robbery except some pistols, whilst Kung Zieng Young replied he could dispose of this problem.

In the afternoon of the same day, Yeh Woo Chung led Kung Zieng Young and three other persons to a place, i.e. Sung Nee Shing Macaroni Shop, House 487 Hannan Road, the vicinity of which they investigated for purpose of committing their robbery some days later.

At 12 noon on the 1-1-42 as I was wandering about on No. 13 Wharf, the Bund, I met one Loh Kau Tsang (2nd accused), a friend of mine, and then brought him to Room 28 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Woikwe, F.O. .

At about 3 p.m. on the 3-1-42 Kung Zieng Young in company with Chen Yue Tsih (4th accused) also came to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House for purpose of discussing how to carry on their attempted robbery, and they further made an engagement to meet in Room 604 of the Mah Woe Lodging House, located on Avenue Richard VII, F.O. at 7 p.m. the same day.

On the appointed time I accompanied Loh Kau Tsang to Room 604 of the Mah Woe Lodging House, wherein we saw Kung Zieng Young, Yeh Woo Chung and 3 or 4 other persons were all present at the time.

At about 8 p.m. same date, Yeh Woo Chung and Kung Zieng

Yoong, each armed with a pistol, led all of us to leave the Dah woo Lodging House, and then travel along Avenue Edward VII, F.C., Shantung Road, Nanking Road, Hsien Road, and finally we arrived at 487 Honan Road, i.e. the address of the Sung Nee Shing Chinese Macaroni Shop. Then Lee Ching Kong (3rd accused) kept a watch on the opposite side-walk of the street and I in front of the shop, while all the other members of our party entered inside the shop. After about 10 minutes, some rushed out of the said premises, and then each one of our party returned back separately to Room 604 of the Dah Woo Lodging House. Those who returned back earlier were led by Yah woo Zung and Kong Zieng Yoong to another Lodging House (Sign-board and address unknown to me), because they were afraid that their criminal case might be discovered by others. I, reaching the room the latest, was not on time to follow them and unable to find their whereabouts, hence I stayed in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House for one more night.

At about 9 a.m. the next day, i.e. on 4-1-43, Kong Zieng Yoong came to my room and told me that an amount of $1,800.00 was robbed from the Sung Nee Shing Macaroni Shop the other evening. In the meantime I received from Kong Zieng Yoong a share of $50.00 of their loot for myself, and another share of $50.00 for Loh Koo Tsung (2nd accused), and after this, Kong Zieng Yoong left my room.

At 12 noon, same date, Loh Koo Tsung (2nd accused) visited me in my room, whilst I gave him the said sum of $50.00 to him at once.

At 2 p.m. on the 6-1-42, Kong Liang Yoon came to me and said that he had booked a room at Room 202 of the Tsung Hwa Lodging House, located on Fochow Road. I then left my room and together with Kong Liang Yoon went to the Tsung Hwa Lodging House. As the latter room was too small for our group of persons to live in, Kong Liang Yoon in company with me went to book another room at Room 53 of the Shanghai Sing Lodging House, located on Nipoh Road, whilst only I, myself stayed that night, whilst they went to sleep in a building, located at the rear of the China Theatre.

At about 2 p.m. on the 7-1-42 when I went to Room 202 of the Tsung Hwa Lodging House to visit Kong Liang Yoon, who was absent at the time, I was arrested by the police.

This is my true statement.

The following described persons participated in this robbery, are still not arrested:-

1. Kong Liang Yoon, age 28 years, height 5' 8", medium build, long face, yellow hair, brushed back, wearing grey coloured foreign dress, and sometimes wearing Chinese long gown, Foozung dialect.
2. Yeh Woe Zung, age about 35 years, height about 5' 8", pale complexion, round face, medium build, hair brushed back, wearing grey coloured Long gown, Foozung dialect.

3. Male pers : (Name unknown), age about 30 years, height about 5' 9", str br build, yellow complexion, square face, big eyes, wearing grey coloured long gown padded with cotton, Shanghai dialect.

4. Male person (name unknown), age about 40 years, height 5' 6", strong build, yellow & round face, hair cut short, wearing black long gown padded with cotton, Shanghai dialect.

2-1-42

My name is Loh Kau Tsang alias Lau Duh Lia, 28 years of age, native of Pootung, M/Hawker, and residing at House No. 28 Loh Kah Wei, Pootung, but N.F.A. in Shanghai.

During my boyhood I followed my parents to farm in the fields in my native place. In May 1941 through the introduction of an acquaintance of mine (Name unknown), I was employed as an orderly in the Special Service Section of the 13th division. In July the same year I resigned from this work and became a hawker henceforth.

On the 1-1-42 when I was on board a ship to Shanghai from Pootung and got on shore from No. 13 wharf, the Bund, I met a friend of mine named Zee Chao Foo (1st accused), and then accompanied him to book Room No. 28 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Waikwa, French Concession, wherein both of us lived together.

At about 6 p.m. on the 2-1-42 I together with Zee Chao Foo visited Room No. 76 of the Three Friends' Lodging House, located at Rue Malakao, French Concession where the latter introduced me to get acquaintance with one named Kong Zieng Young. At that moment Kong Zieng Young spoke to me that a Sung Hoo Chinese Macaroni Shop, located at 487 Honan Road, was in possession of a great deal of money and he attempted to carry on a robbery in this shop. He asked me to join their party also and promised that he would dispatch someone to call me in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House at 8 p.m. on 2-1-42, whilst I agreed with his opinion.

At about 8 p.m. the next day, i.e. on 2-1-42, Zee Chao Foo in company with one Chen Yue Taih (4th accused) visited me in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House and then brought me to Room 604 of the Dah Hoo Lodging House, located on Avenue Edward VII, French Concession, wherein Kong Ziang Young and 4 or 5 other persons (Name unknown) were present.

At about 8 p.m. the same day, I together with See Chao Foo, Chen Yue Taih, Kong Ziang Young and 4 or 5 persons (name unknown) travelled to No. 487 Hunan Road for purpose of robbing Sung Nee Chinese Macaroni Shop, and on arrival at the address in question, we saw that its door was closed, but its small window still opened.

At that moment, on instructions of Kong Ziang Young, I kept watch in front of the shop and See Chao Foo on the opposite side-walk of the street, whilst Kong Ziang Young and another person (name unknown) each took out a pistol from their bodies, and then they together with Chen Yue Taih and 2 or 3 other persons (name unknown) entered the said shop. After about 10 minutes as all of them, having done their work, ran out of the mentioned premises, I then returned back to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House by taking a ricksha.

At about 10 a.m. the next day, i.e. 4-1-42, both Kong Ziang Young and See Chao Foo arrived at Room 28 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, while Kong Ziang Young distributed me a sum of $25.00 of their robbed money. The amount of money, robbed from the shop mentioned above, is unknown to me.

On 4-1-42, See Chao Foo came to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House and brought me to Room 208 of the Young Hwa Lodging located at House 1 Lane 636 House 1 and 1 1/2 miles out, and I then returned back to the Town 1 or 2 miles House 1 mile.

at about 3 p.m. on the 7-1-42, I visited their room again, but no sooner had I arrived at the Town 1 or 2 miles Lodging House than I was arrested by the U. S. Police.

My name is Lee Ching Kong alias Yih Sing Woo, 25 residing years of age, native of Nanking, married, and/Ching Wei Jao Market, Pootung.

I was born in Loong Doo Market, Nanking.

At the age of 5 years I commenced schooling in a private school in the place of my nativity, and, owing to the poor financial circumstances of my family, I ceased my studies at the age of 6. I then helped my father to work in the farm at my native place up to the age of 15.

When I was 16 years old I enlisted myself as a soldier at Tsu Sai Wei outside the city of Nanking. Before the outbreak of the August 13th incident, the army, which I was attached to, was reorganised, hence I promoted to the rank of 1st class soldier attached to the 8th row, 7th company, 3rd battalion, 15th regiment of the 88th Division, which was then dispatched to Shanghai and stationed at Bah Loong Kong, Pootung, but the army was disbanded afterwards.

In the year 1938 I became an orderly in the 3rd company of the Special Service Battalion of the Peace & Reconstruction Corps, which was stationed at Bah Jao Village, Hinghong. During my three years' services in the corps, I was in good friendship with one Kong Ziang Young, who was a captain of the 1st row of the 3rd company.

On the 1-1-42 (i.e. New Year's day) it was a holiday that Kong Ziang Young and myself made an engagement to travel to Shanghai. At 3 p.m. that day both of us started our journey at Bah Jao Village, Hinghong and at 5 p.m. same date we arrived at Shanghai. We booked a Room at Room 206 of the Dah Tung Sing lodging house, located on the Pakikao, French Concession where we rested for a while and then took our supper. Kong Ziang Young used the whole night for visiting his friends, while I slept lonely in the room.

At about 8 p.m. the next day, i.e. 3-1-42, Kong Ziang Young brought into the room three persons, one of whom was known to be named Yah Woo Zaung, the proprietor of a tea-shop at Dah Kong, Pootung, but the names of the other two persons were unknown to me. At that time all of us, consisting of Kong Ziang Young, Yah Woo Zaung, myself and the other two persons, gathered in the room and proposed that all of us should carry out a robbery if we wished to relieve our poor financial conditions, and this was agreed by all. After about half an hour, while Kong Ziang Young and Yah Woo Zaung were going to leave the room, the former gave me $10.00 for my feed and told me still live in the Dah Tung Sing lodging house waiting for his good information. Both of them did not return to the room that whole night.

At 7 p.m. 3-1-42 while I was staying in the Dah Tung Sing lodging house, Kong Ziang Young and Yah Woo Zaung accompanied by two unknown male persons called on me and told me to participate in their conspiracy (robbery). At about 7.30 p.m. all of us (five in number) left the lodging house and proceeded to the corner of Hunan & Tientsin Roads where on instructions of Kong Ziang Young we were told to wait for a short time, while he left the spot for some other place from where he later brought to us another three persons, Zee Chao Foo (1st acc.) Loh Kau Tsang (2nd accused) and Chen Yue Tsih (4th accused).

Under the leadership of Kong Ziang Yoong we then went to Sung Nee Shing Macaroni Shop, 487 Homan Road. On arrival we found that the shop in question had just closed for the day, but its front door had not yet been locked. We all entered the shop under the pretext of visiting friends, with the exception of Zee Chao Foo, Loh Kau Tsang and two other unknown male persons.

Having gained the entrance, Kong Ziang Yoong and Yah Woo Zaung (both armed with a pistol) threatened the inmates to keep quiet and at the same time instructed them to go upstairs where they were detained in a rear room. In the ensuing time I destroyed the iron safe by means of an iron axe, and with the assistance of Chen Yue Tsih (4th accused) all banknotes together with subsidiary notes were put in a rattan basket which was then handed over to Kong Ziang Yoong. I did not know the exact amount of money in the rattan basket. After a lapse of ten minutes and on completion of our work, I descended downstairs. On leaving the premises, I found that Zee Chao Foo and two other unknown male persons took up their positions as look-outs, while Loh Kau Tsang stood guard the front door. I then returned to Room 205 of the Dah Tung Sing lodging house for the purpose of waiting for their return but with no result.

At about 7 a.m. 4-1-48 Kong Ziang Yoong came to my room and gave me $100 as my share of proceeds, also instructing me to buy a suit of cotton lung gown with which I could return to my corps. Before leaving my room, Kong told me that if I wanted to see him some time later, I could locate him in Room No.202 of the Tsung Hwa lodging house, Foochow Road.

At about 5-6 p.m. 7-1-42 I was arrested when I visited Room No.202 of the Tsung Hwa lodging house, Foochow Road.

My name is Chen Yue Tsih, age 24, b/Fruit grower, residing Pootung.

I was born in Sin Jao Village, Pootung.

At the age of 11 years I commenced schooling in the Zou Na Primary School, Sin Jao Village and ceased my studies at the age of 14. I then became employed as an apprentice in the Tsu Tseng Yuen Fruit Shop, Pootung until 18 when I secured employment in the Yen Dah Fruit Shop, Tseupoo where I worked for some time.

Resultant from the outbreak of the August 13th Incident 1937, the last mentioned fruit shop was compelled to suspend operation due to dull business, there I enlisted myself as a member of the Tseupoo Defence Corps which was organized for the purpose of protecting people on that locality. On May 1938 I resigned from the corps due to low wages and returned to my native place.

Later I secured employment in the Yue Tai Zieng Fruit Shop, Dah Den Village, but I lost this job on May 1940 when the shop closed down.

On 30-12-41 I received a letter from one of my fellow countrymen named Kong Zieng Yeang (not arrested) in Shanghai, telling me to meet him at Room No.27 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, Rue de Waikwei, French Concession, as early as possible.

At 1 p.m. 2-1-42 I left Pootung by boat and reached Shanghai at about 2 p.m. Soon after I took up my abode in Room 29 of the Hwa Tung lodging house, Shantung Road.

At about 2 p.m. 3-1-42, I left the lodging house and proceeded to Tsung Kiang lodging house where I met Kong. Whilst we were talking together, two friends of Kong entered the room, and through his introduction I learned that one was called Zee Chao Foo (1st accused), and the other was Loh Kiu Tsang alias Zau Duh Pise (2nd accused). At that time Kong proposed that all of us should carry out a robbery if we wish to relieve our financial condition, and this was agreed by all. Kong then suggested that all of us should gather at 7 p.m. that day in Room 604 of the Dah Woo lodging house, Avenue Edward VII. After that the 1st accused Zee Chao Foo and the 2nd accused Loh Kiu Tsang left the room.

At about 7 p.m. same date, I accompanied Kong Kiang Yeung to Dah Woo lodging house. On arrival I found the following persons were present; Zee Chao Foo (1st accused), Loh Kiu Tsang (2nd accused), Lee Ching Kong alias Yih Sang Woo (3rd accused), Ye Woe Tsung (not arrested), Ye Woe Tsung's friend name not known and Tsau Ching Sam. Kong then said to them that his intended task could be begun. Soon after all the aforementioned persons left the lodging house and walked north along Chekiang Road. On approaching Wanking Road, we turned east till we reached Homan Road. On arriving at Sung Hoo Shing Mercantile Shop, 487 Homan Road at about 8.45 p.m., Kong Kiang Yeung armed with a pistol entered the shop in question with Loh Kiu Tsang (2nd accused), Lee Ching Kong (3rd accused), Ye Woe Tsung and myself, while the 1st accused Zee Chao Foo, Tsau Ching Sam and Yeh Woe Tsung's friend took up their positions as look-outs. Kong being the leader ascended the 1st floor followed by us. In the meantime I took from the accountant's desk several-ten dollars, while Kong destroyed the safe and took out all money from it, but I did not know the exact amount he had taken.

After the fulfillment of our work, we descended the stairs and made good our escape through various directions. I returned to my room at Tsung Kiang lodging house.

At about 10 a.m. 4-1-42 Kong came to my place and gave me $50 as my share of proceeds.

At 3 p.m. 6-1-42 Kong came again to me and informed me that he had opened another room No.202 in the Tsung Hwa lodging house, Foochow Road, at the same time accompanied me to go there for recreation which I did, but I returned to my place after a short time.

At 11 a.m. 7-1-42 Kong Zieng Yeung came again to me and told me to attend Tsung Hwa lodging house at 4 p.m. sharp that day. I went there accordingly at the stated time when I was arrested.

At 11. 0 a.m. 3/23/42 Sgt. Uoyama of the Western Branch Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters No. 94 Jessfield Road, O.C.L. together with two male Chinese assistants came to this station and requested assistance to visit Lane No. 123 House No. 18 Chen-tu Road to conduct a search of the said premises, as information had been received by him that a quantity of unregistered gasoline was stored there.

The necessary assistance was given by D.P.O. Tanaka, and in the compound of the above house were found hidden under a stack of fire wood four 50 gallon drums of gasoline, and also a further two 50 gallon drums and ten 5 gallon tins were found concealed under a staircase at the rear of the premises. Total amount of gasoline found 350 gallons.

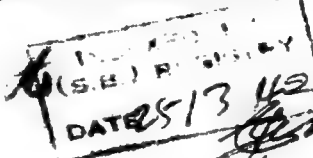

The above premises are occupied by the Hua Yih Shing (華一新) Printing Company which is owned by one named Ts Chia Ts (朱階七) above address, who was then absent.

Inquiries at the scene revealed that the said gasoline was not registered with the S.M.C.

Accordingly Sgt. Uoyama sealed all the drums and tins of gasoline, and gave instructions for same not to be removed, until further instructions were received from the Japanese Gendarmerie.

Assistance to Japanese Holdermore.

Sir,

At 3 p.m. 30-4-42 Zao Zang Kyung, (趙長根), the person wanted for questioning as mentioned in previous diary, came to station together with Hsia Jong Jao (夏榮郊), wife of the man now in custody, namely, Hsia Shiu Chong. Zao Zang Kyung having been informed by Hsia Jong Jao regarding the incident came and stated the following facts to Police :-

On or before 19-3-42 one named Hsu Pah Ning (許平寧) shipping hong broker, home address unknown, came to visit Zao Zang Kyung in his office formerly located at 12 Poochow Road and asked him to transport some cotton cloth to Sungkiang (松江) via Wingham (甯明). Zao Zang Kyung agreed and received delivery from Hsu Pah Ning on 20-3-42 450 rolls of cotton cloth for transporting to Sungkiang. Zao also received at the same time $25,000.00 from Hsu as transportation fee. Having obtained the cargo, Zao Zang Kyung then handed same to Hsia Shiu Chong for transporting to the destination and gave latter $4,750.00 as transportation fee. The cargo was placed in Hsia's home (Lane 217/5 Yates Road) pending the issuance of the necessary transportation permit. However, Hsia Shiu Chong failed to obtain this permit, therefore, this cargo was intended to be returned to the owner. At this time free movement of cloth in large quantity was prohibited in the Settlement thus the cargo was consequently deposited in Hsia's home pending the application for a transport permit.

At 10.30 a.m. 17/4/42, Corporal Morobashi of the Japanese Gendarmerie Chiba Force stationed at Wyburgh Road together with a male Chinese named Tsau Young Ming (趙永明) came to this station and requested assistance to visit and search House No. 5 Lane No. 217 Yates Road, as the Japanese Gendarmerie had received an anonymous letter on the 16/4/42 stating that a quantity of unregistered cotton cloth, dye and iron was stored therein.

SPECIAL BRANCH
REG.	DATE REC'D
P. A. S.

The necessary assistance was rendered by D.S.I. Mori, D.S.I. Liao Kwei Wu and in the ground floor front room of the above house, which is used as a store room, were found 450 rolls of cotton cloth and 2 cases of dye, but no iron was found therein. The premises were duly sealed by Spl. Morobashi and the occupant of the room one named Hsia Shiu Cheng (夏仕成), 27, Footung, W/Manager of the Fung Ping (豐平) Transportation Co., No. 209 Pakhoi Road, was brought to the station.

Questioned by investigating officers he stated as follows :-

At about 9 a.m. 20/3/42 one named Zao Zang Kyung (趙長根) Manager of the Chung Lien (中聯) Transportation Co., situated at No. 53 Room No. 12 Fookshew Road, came to his office at No. 200 Pakhoi Road and asked him if he could transport a quantity of cotton cloth and dye to Hingtung for him. It was then agreed that Hsia would undertake to transport the said material if he could obtain the necessary permit.

On the morning of the 23/3/42 Zao came to Hsia's office and handed over to him NT. 900.00. and at about 2 p.m. 23/3/42 Hsia went to Zao's office where he received a further NT. 750.00 making a total of NT. 1,650.00 received by him as transportation fee.

Zao next visited Hsia at his office on the morning of the 27/3/42, where Hsia informed him that he was unable to obtain a permit to transport the said materials. Zao then informed Hsia that he had no money at present in which to store the materials in question, and requested that he (Hsia) allow him to temporarily store same at his home at No. 217/5 Yates Road. Hsia duly agreed to this and at 4 p.m. 28/4/42 Zao brought 500 rolls of cotton cloth and 2 cases of dye to Hsia's home.

The above property was stored in the above premises until the 23/4/42 when Zao called at the house and removed to an unknown destination by handtrrolley 50 rolls of the cotton cloth.

Hsia states that he has not seen Zao since the latter date and also as the property is not his, he is not aware whether or not same is registered.

Every endeavour was made by investigating officers to locate Zao. His office situated at No. 53 Room No. 12 Woodrow Road, was visited but same was vacant, and no information as to his present whereabouts could be obtained.

Later Sgt. Major Ito, Officer i/c Japanese Gendarmerie Chiba Force stationed at Wyburgh Road, was communicated by D.F.S. Tanaka, and asked if he desired Hsia Shin Cheng to be handed over to the Gendarmerie for enquiries. He stated that he informed D.C.I. Mori previously through telephone that this was, in his opinion, a criminal case and that the case should be conducted by Police.

1/Sheet 1 of 3.

My name is Hsin Hsin Thong, age 27, native of Ningpo, //manager of the Yung Yung Co., residing at Lane 217/5 Yates Road.

Coming to Shanghai in January of this year, through business connection, I became acquainted with Zao Zao; Kyung who is a manager of the Chung Hsin Shipping Hong at Room 12, 2nd floor of 55 Goodnow Road.

On March 26th, at about 10 a.m., he came to my office and asked me to obtain a permit for him, because he had some cotton cloth etc to be transported to Ninghong.

At 10 a.m. 28/3/42, he again came to my office and paid me $3000.00 cash as transportation fee.

At 2 p.m., same date, he paid me a further amount of $1750.00 as transportation fee when I called on him at his office.

At 10 a.m. 27/4/42, Zao came to my office and asked me about the permit. I told him that unless a permit was issued by the China Affairs Board, nothing could be done in the matter. Consequently, at 4 p.m. 28/3/42, Zao transported by a truck 500 rolls of cotton cloth and 2 cases of dye to my home at Lane 217/5 Yates Road, which he asked me to keep for him temporarily at my home. When he departed he said to me that he would come to take away the goods and transportation fee from me after a few days.

At 12 noon 23/4/42, Zao came to my home and took away a part of the stored goods (80 rolls of cotton cloth). Since then, I did not see him.

1/Sheet No. 2.

At about 11 a.m. 3/4/45, Japanese Gendarmarie accompanied by Police suddenly visited my home and placed me under arrest.

The above is my true statement.

At 4.10 p.m. 29/5/42 J.S. 633 Yamasaki and C.D.S. 47 brought to station a female Chinese named

Lieu Lai Di (李麗弟), 26, Shanghai, widow, 15 Market Lane, Robison Road,

S.I. (as Takayama)
who was handed over to them by one named Tsang Lien Kung (張連庚), Chief of 16th Pao, 3rd Section, who reported that she was wanted by the Kiangwan Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters.

Enquiries by D.I. Ando, D.S. Ito, D.I. Zang Woo and C.D.S. 47 revealed that on the 28/5/42 Japanese officials from the Kiangwan Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters visited 15 Market Lane, Robison Road, in an endeavour to locate the above female, but she was absent. Tsang Lien Kung was then warned by the officials to detain her should she return home and report them by Pingpao 02-2231.

At 4 p.m. 25/5/42 Tsang Lien Kung located her in her home, detained her and later handed her over to J.S. Yamasaki and C.D.S. 47 who were operating a search party in the vicinity.

As far as can be ascertained from the Two Chief, the female and her sweetheart were Lien Kung (李連庚), age 34, native of Hah-sung (哈興), living at Hah-sung, were wanted in connection with a case of murder of a Japanese soldier in Hah-sung.

No. H D 8222/442
Date 15/6/42

Chinese Affairs, Sp.Br. Station. File No. Date June 13, 1942.

SUBJECT: Japanese Gendarmerie conducts raid on Hospital St. Marie.

According to reliable information, some 160 Japanese gendarmes together with the French Police raided the St. Marie Hospital at about 1.30 p.m. yesterday. The object of this raid, was to effect the arrest of a Chinese male, alleged to be the leader of the Special Service Squad of the Chungking Regime, who was said to be recuperating in the hospital. According to the Japanese gendarmes, the wanted man was accompanied by four armed bodyguards and it was for the reason that the gendarmes came in such large numbers.

No arrest is said to have been made while nothing was seized.

According to information received, the French Police objected to this raid because at the time of asking for assistance, representatives of the Japanese Gendarmerie did not indicate that such a large number of gendarmes would participate.
